

Tim Christensen - Love is a matter of...

Love is a matter of difference
Between you
And me
Love is a matter of distance
But you are too far away

Love is a matter of growing
And knowing
True feelings
Love is a matter of showing
But you are so far away

When my heart is hoping
My mind is opening to find
That I can't let you stay
Though love is a matter of difference
You are too far away

Love is a matter of input
Outlook
Deep inside
Love is to know you're on my side
But you are so far away

When my heart is hoping
My mind is opening to find
That I can't let you stay
Though love is a matter of difference
You are too far away

When my heart is hoping
My mind is opening to find
That I can't let you stay
Though love is a matter of difference
You are too far away
If love is a matter of distance
You are too far away
